

"Awesome!" That's a word we hear a lot when people see how we can color conventional concrete. Today's design professionals have more options for coloring concrete than ever before, thanks to Nawkaw. Not only can we match almost any color, but we also offer architectural finishes that will indeed distinguish your signature designs. Want something different? Ask us about creating a custom architectural finish just for you.

Above: This housing complex in Melbourne, Victoria, Australia is distinguished by the Aged Copper architectural finish applied by Nawkaw.

Below: Pictured are but a few of our growing Architectural Finishes Collection. See more on our website at www.nawkaw.com

Changing the Color of Home.

Endless combinations, to create the look you want.

Nawkaw manufactures and installs a complete line of concrete stains that are ideal for tilt-up, cast-in-place, and After precast concrete applications. Whether flat or textured, our mineral based stains penetrate and form a chemical bond with the concrete surface.

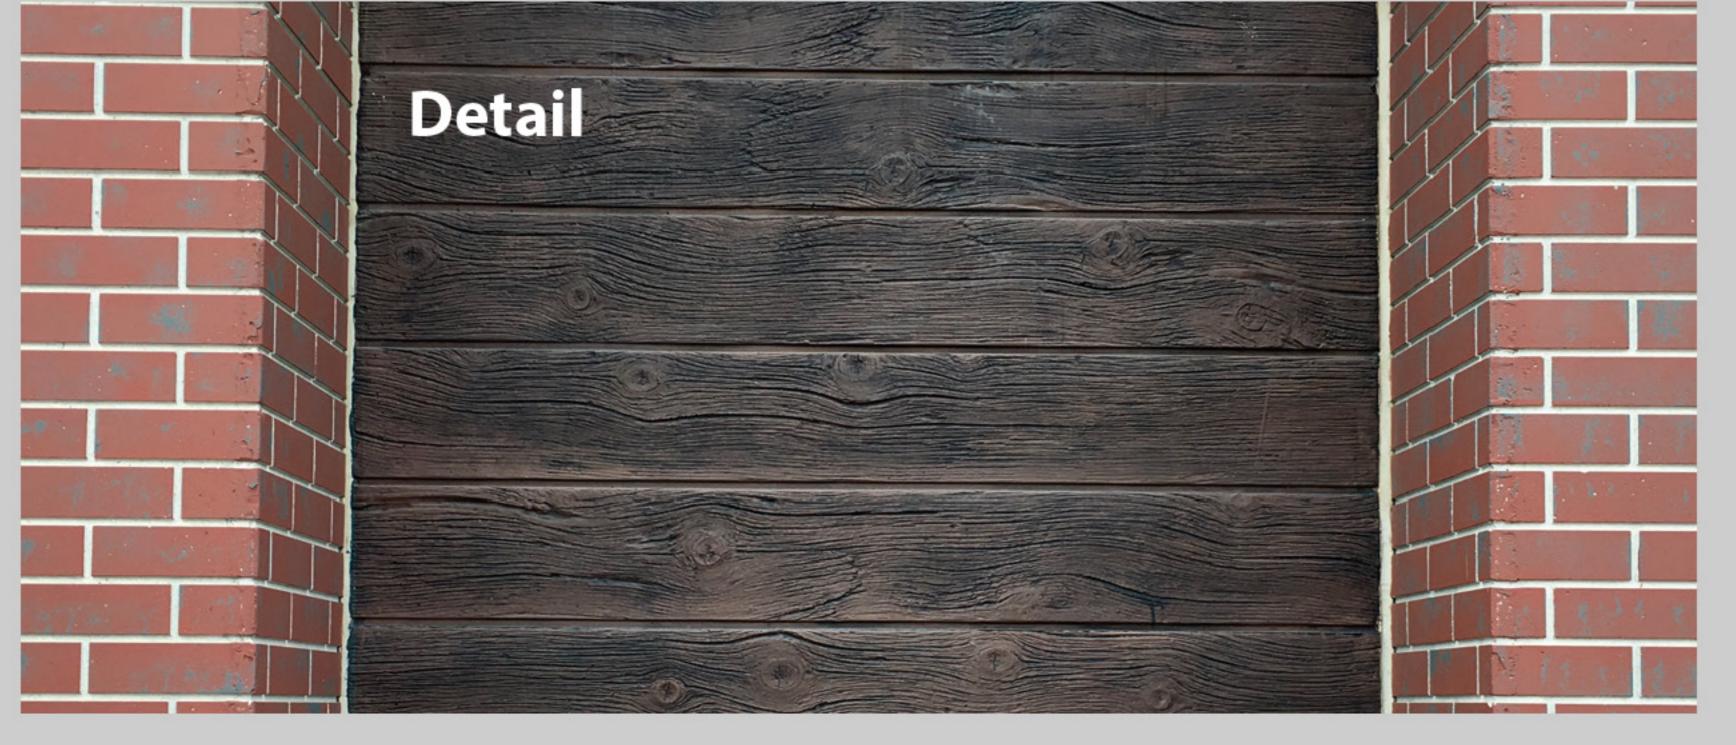

We offer semi-transparent and opaque stains to achieve the look you want. The opaque stains provide excellent coverage to correct blemishes and repairs, while the semi- transparents allow the natural Nawkaw has been staining concrete and masonry for over 30 years! We manufacture environmentally-friendly stains and offer the most advanced techniques in the industry.

els, yet with all the benefits of precast. Nawkaw's colors the project successfully and on budget. accentuate the texture's natural look.

Above: The building above uses flat and textured con- Below: The Armed Forces Reserve Center in Norman, OK is a massive crete to mimic the look of brick, wood, and smooth pan-structure. Nawkaw mobilized resources from four states and completed

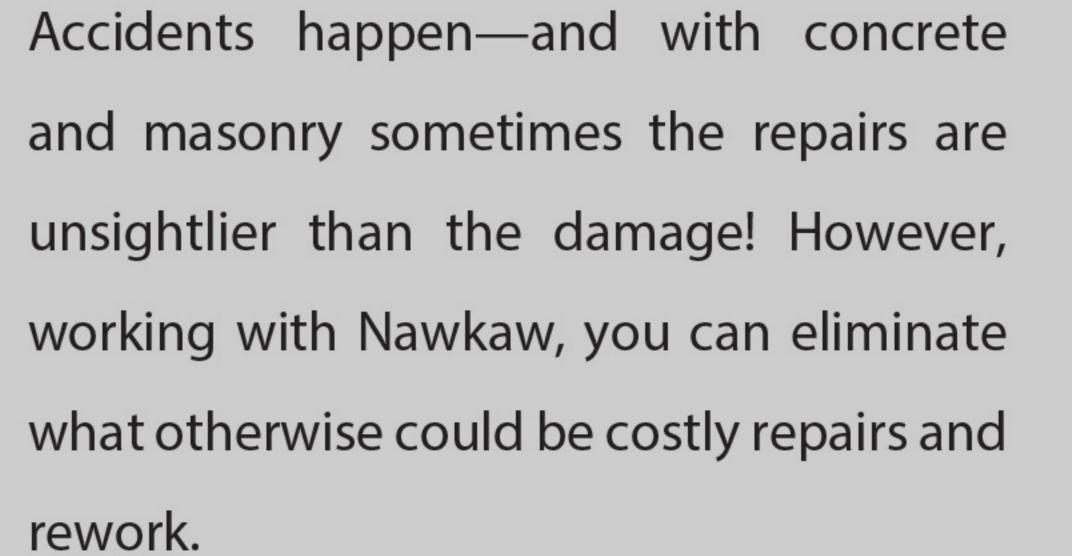

you have to repaint it over and over again—it's what we call finish that won't chip, peel, or fade. "paintenance." Our stains are specially formulated to penetrate

The inherent beauty and timeless quality of brick have made it a masonry surfaces and lock in color. Because our stains allow the preferred building material for hundreds of years. Brick performs wall to breathe, they do not trap excess moisture that can freeze excellently regarding functionality; however, over time it can and cause the surface to fail. Plus, the colors are semitransparent appear dated or out of fashion. When a brick or masonry structure and enhance the natural look of brick, block, stone, stucco, and needs updating, many people choose to paint it—but Nawkaw other materials. When you choose Nawkaw to change the color Masonry Stains are a superior solution! If you paint masonry, of your masonry structure, you will enjoy a maintenance-free

When remodeling or repairing brickwork, selecting the right size, shape, and texture is the first step. Nawkaw's color experts can quickly match the color of existing bricks.

We have saved contractors, architects, and homeowners millions of dollars by assisting with the selection of bricks for remodeling, repair, and other infill work.

Above: The Nawkaw team helped with the selection of bricks for the repair of this column. Using bricks of the correct size, shape, and texture—even though they were a different color—was essential to achieving a precise match to the existing Left: When this remodeling job was completed, the infill work did not match with the existing brick. However, because the size and texture of the bricks were well matched beforehand, the staining results turned out outstanding.

Below: This precast concrete was severely discolored. Re-pouring the panels would have been an enormous expense. Nawkaw concrete stains were used to resolve the problem—saving time and money.

Nawkaw creates the authentic look you want for concrete projects.

You pick the colors ... we do the samples.

We fix costly mistakes, and save you time and money.